Lack of a passing attack failed to halt the Wakefield High School on Saturday as the grounded Warriors rolled up a total of 303 yards rushing to demolish the un-named Annandale High School, 27-0, for their second win of the season against one defeat.

Three costly Annandale fumbles and a pair of equally damaging interceptions by alert Warrior defensive units literally broke the visitors' spirit time and again as Dick Johnson coached Wakefield. Wakefield even took advantage of the opening opportunity.

In the first quarter following an exchange of a fumble, the Annandale quarterback, Davies, hurled a pass toward the Wakefield which was handily intercepted by Wakefield safety-man Tom Perkins who gathered the pigskin under his arms and raced 67 yards for the first touchdown. Don Gardiner then place-kicked the extra point to give the Warriors a first quarter lead.

Following the kickoff Wakefield held the ball and following a punt, took over on its own 30 yard line. A 91 yard rush got under way as Perkins up 19, Gardiner 11, Mayo six, Perkins to an additional 10, Perkins threw into the end zone 19 yards out converted by McGill for the first touchdown as the second quarter under way. Again Perkins kicked perfect for the extra point to give the locals a 14-0 lead.

In six minutes later Wakefield had scored a third time as McGill intercepted another pass deep in enemy territory on the very first play of the third quarter. Don Gardiner rushed his own right end for the first time in nine yards to paydirt. Perkins also added the extra point to hand the Warriors a comfortable 21-0 margin by halftime when the Wakefield public address system carried a brief portion of the final game of the World Series for the benefit of the capacity crowd.

In the third quarter Wakefield got as far as the Annandale 31 yard line before losing the ball on downs, and right before the end of the 12-minute period, the Warriors took over again on their own 20.

After getting as far as midfield at the beginning of the final quarter, Wakefield was forced to punt, but had regained possession of the ball after just one series of downs.

Joe Morris then took the ball from Annandale's 48 yard line and in one play dashed through the middle of the whole visiting team for that last Wakefield touchdown. A fumble on the try for extra point kept the final score at its readily acceptable 27-0 proportions.
